

The Price of Pleasure: The Real Cost of Pornography

FILM SCREENING

A documentary screening and panel discussion hosted by the Coalition Against Trafficking in Women Australia

Pornography has become mainstream and ubiquitous, but its content has also become more and more violent and degrading. The Price of Pleasure (2008) examines this troubling trend and how it affects our sexuality and relationships.

When: Wednesday 2nd December, 2009
Time: 6pm (for 6.30) – 8.30pm
Where: Trades Hall – New Council Chamber
(enter via Victoria Street)
Cost: $10 at the door

Tea and coffee provided

For bookings please email:
catwaustralia@gmail.com

“A film to help us really “see” what we have been looking at, and to enable us, finally, to talk about how pornography informs our actual lives. It’s powerful.”

- Michael Kimmel